Third Army – PAO

CAMP ARIFJAN, Kuwait – Third Army launched its official page on Facebook Oct. 20.

Third Army's Facebook page will provide a new channel for Soldiers and Family members to connect with each other and discuss and share Third Army programs.

The Third Army Facebook page will facilitate community relations projects and provide an additional outlet for outside organizations to access Third Army initiatives.

"Technology has impacted the way Soldiers and Family members communicate with one another," said Lt. Gen. William G. Webster, Third Army commander. "I'm confident our Facebook presence will complement Third Army's current web site as a means of communicating and connecting with Soldiers and Family members in our military community."

While the page on Facebook will not replace the Third Army's web site (www.arcent.army.mil) as the official source of Third Army information, Facebook users can expect to see an array of content, including press releases, event information, photos and video.

The page can be found by searching "Third Army" on Facebook.
